TWO BIG DEALS CLOSED.

Two big deals closed.

The Hotel Portsmouth and The Pig Point and Newport News Railway.

Yesterday the deal for the purchase of the Pig Point and Newport News Railroad charter, which was owned by several gentlemen in this city, was closed by Capt, Thomas Shelton becoming the pu. aarer for Mr. Lancaster Williams, of the Norfolk Street Railroad. The price paid was $3,000. The company intends to build a railroad from Portsmouth to Pig Point through the thickly $44tled section of the truck lands. They are negotiating with Mr. Henry Kirn for his farm at that point and will build a first class hotel there to be used as a summer and winter reand will build a first class hotel there to be used as a summer and winter resort. A ferry will be established to Newport News, and work will be commenced as soon as the route can be surveyed and rights of way secured. They hope to have the same completed before the end of the year.

The deal for the Ocean House and adjoining property was also consummated yesterday. The property was sold for $100,000, the new company giving Mr. Newgass $50,000 of bands and he taking $20,000 worth of stock. Work will be commenced immediately.

LOCKED IN THE CEMETERY.

LOCKED IN THE CEMETERY.

Yesterday afternoon two young ladies visited Cedar Grove Cemetery. They were a little late in going out with their flowers and remained longer than they anticipated. The keeper, Mr. Dashi ils thinking that every one was out, locked the gate and locked them in.

When they started to go home they found themselves locked in the cemetery. Night began to come on and fear began to creep over them. About this time a gentleman passed. They appealed to him for help. He went in search of the keeper, but falled to find him, so he returned to the cemetry and let the ladies out by forcing the gate open. They were unbounded in their praise and breathed a sigh of relief when they felt themselves free again. We will wishold names for fear that their friends may guy them. ar that their friends may guy them She was attended by Dr. Fe

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS,

To-day the Catholic young men of this vicinity will organize what is known as a lodge of the Order of Knights of America. About 580 members of the order will come here from Boston, Washington, Baltimore and Richmond. They come on boats chartered for the occasion, and will proceed to Armory Hall, when State Organizer D. J. Callahan, of Norfolk, will itsilitate the ledge. The order is said to be quite prosperous and will no doubt become popular in this city.

Some of the most prominent Catholics in the city have signified their intention to become members. A number of them were at work all duty yesterday setting the hall in order for the occasion.
